The Triangle is a region in North Carolina that is anchored by the cities of Durham, Raleigh, and Chapel Hill. These cities are home to Duke University, North Carolina State University, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Research Triangle Park (RTP) is the largest research park in the country that boasts a strong community focused on innovation and collaboration. Within close proximity to universities focused on medicine, engineering, and biotechnology research, RTP is uniquely positioned to benefit from the creative talent provided by these institutions.

Sports fans will appreciate the opportunities to watch ACC team basketball, football, and baseball games. If you are visiting during summer, check out a Durham Bulls AAA baseball game made famous by the 1988 film Bull Durham. For hockey fans, Raleigh is home to the Carolina Hurricanes NHL team.
